

Figure 5. Densities of core samples from Corbato (1963). All core samples are Tertiary or younger sedimentary rocks. Note that densities from the well south of the Mission Hills thrust fault are lower than those measured north of the Mission Hills thrust.